A Note From The Director...

As we close another season at Project Dance, I want to take a moment to honor the journey we've all taken together.

To our incredible students, what a year it has been! You've shown resilience, dedication, and heart every step of the way. Whether balancing school, friendships, or long rehearsals, you committed yourselves fully, and it shows. You've discovered a spark, something meaningful that drives you and that passion has transformed you. Never let go of it. Cherish it. Let it guide you.

You are not just dancer, you are artists, teammates, and forces of strength. I am endlessly proud of how far you've come and the courage you bring to every performance. Watching you grow, individually and as a company, continues to inspire me beyond words. Thank you for letting me be part of your story.

To our parents and families, your support is the foundation of all we do. Thank you for encouraging your children, cheering from the sidelines, and trusting Project Dance to help shape their growth, both in dance and in life. Your kindness and positivity fill our space with warmth every day.

To our devoted faculty, your guidance, creativity, and heart make magic happen. Your dedication to our dancers lifts them higher and keeps this studio moving forward. I'm so grateful for your brilliance and your unwavering belief in our students.

To my parents, your love and support are at the heart of everything I do. Thank you for always reminding me who I am, while giving me the wings to fly.

To my children, Stevie and Blake, coming home to your love is my greatest joy. You remind me daily of what matters most and bring light into every corner of my life.

And to Jerry, your belief in me makes all of this possible. Thank you for being my partner, my steady ground, and my biggest fan. I love you always.

To everyone who is part of the Project Dance family: thank you. Let's celebrate this beautiful year and all it has brought us.

With deep gratitude and love,
Miss Elysha
