

---

Kayla America Robertini is a Project Dance Alumni. She is currently a New Jersey and New York based dancer and choreographer who received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Dance and Minor in Business at the University of the Arts under the direction of Donna Faye Burchfield. She trained in various styles like Contemporary, Post-Modern, Ballet, Horton, Jazz and Hip Hop with teachers Gary Jeter, Kyle & Dinita Clark, Wayne St. David, Kim Bears Bailey, Mark Caserta and more.

She was the co-captain and member of Ignite Dance Collective, a Philly based hip hop crew.

She also trained with Philadelphias Crew Academy of Phresh, ran by Mark Boston for a season in 2022. Recently she spent some time in Orlando, Florida, living her childhood dreams working for the Walt Disney World Company as part of the Disney College Program and also trained weekly at Motiv Dance Studio.

Kayla finds performing, dancing and sharing amongst a community to be a raw and unmatched feeling. Choreographing became her love language and source of communication. Creating movement embodies emotions greater than words can speak.

---