
Abby Kielty is a professional dance artist based in New Jersey, currently performing with Creative Studios by Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings. She was recently selected to serve as Dance Captain for the Oceania Marina Cast, a role that allowed her to travel across five continents and 33 countries, performing in three production shows.

Abby holds a BFA in Dance with a minor in Business from the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, PA. During her formative years, she attended the Fine and Performing Arts Program at Howell High School, where she focused on dance. Notably, she choreographed the school's production of Bring It On: The Musical, earning the Young Artist of 2020 Award for her outstanding work.

A proud alumna of Project Dance, Abby began her training in 2017, the inaugural year of the studio's opening. She finds great joy in teaching and inspiring the next generation of dancers at Project Dance.
